

The project at a glance

Coding Skills

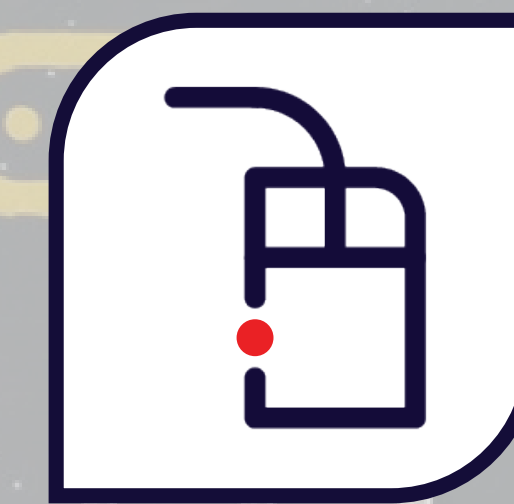

The project supported school students learn basic coding using Micro:bit devices and through that develop their core skills of critical thinking, problem solving, creativity and collaboration.

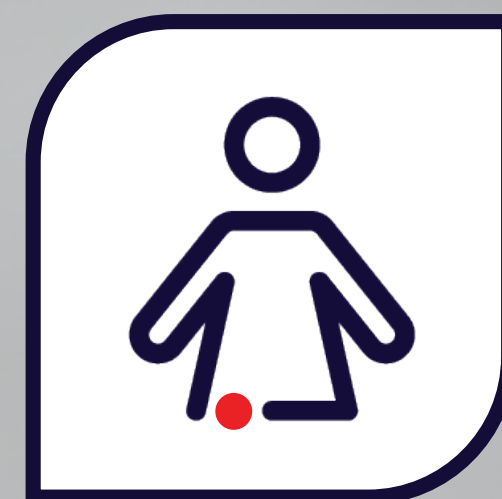

60 teachers' and students' manuals developed

6 schools in three regions of Armenia and Yerevan engaged

120 Micro:bit devices distributed

10 teachers trained

40 hours of offline and online sessions offered

140 students involved

30 student-projects developed